The Marion Art Center Theater Presents A "Smart" Comedy

"The Fourth Wall"

By Dionne F. Richmond

Those looking forward to a good laugh at life, love and politics in the 90s, are in for a special treat by master satirist A.R. Gurney. Mr. Gurney is also known for writing "Love Letters," and "Private Party," which have also been performed at the Marion Art Center.

"We are thrilled to be presenting his new piece," said director Christopher LeBlanc, who is also the theater manager for the Zeiterion Theatre. Mr. LeBlanc also performs in the play and has built the set - a living room in Buffalo complete with a sofa and a piano.

Eight weeks into rehearsals for the contemporary comedy, Mr. LeBlanc said he is thrilled with the way the play is evolving. "It's always fun and a lot of work," he said. But this play has been more fun than work, he noted. "It's been great fun."

In the play Peggy (played by Cindy Latham of Marion), is a suburban housewife, dressed in an embroidered sweater down to her brown sandals and smart short haircut. She has rearranged the furniture in a way that troubles and puzzles her husband Roger (played by Donn Tyler also of Marion). A successful businessman who is conservative and traditional by nature, he calls on an old friend Julia (played by Cheryl Larson of Marion). Julia is a New York sophisticate and libertine who also is baffled by the arrangement. The two women are complete opposites.

Then Floyd enters (played by Mr. LeBlanc). He is a professor of drama at the local university, and has some "interesting" ideas. The livingroom is transformed to a "set" and the plot thickens from there. Mr. LeBlanc called the play wacky, crediting Mr. Gurney for his literary and theatrical writing. The show does have an adult theme.

In the end, there is a surprise twist that will "delight or utterly confuse people," added Mr. LeBlanc.

"Probably a combination of both,"he added. Mr. LeBlanc didn't want to give away too much information, to keep the end a surprise for the audience.

Reservations are now being accepted for the Marion Art Center's upcoming production of "The Fourth Wall" to be presented Fridays and Saturdays, May 3rd, 4th, 10th, 11th at 8:00 pm and Sundays, May 5th and 12th at 7:00 pm.

Tickets are $8 for Marion Art Center members and $10 general admission. The Marion Art Center is located at the corner of Main and Pleasant Streets in Marion. Please call (508) 748-1266 for reservations. Space is limited. Refreshments will also be available.

Marion Art Center Spring Classes

Beginning on Monday, May 13th, Betty Dunlop will be conducting a series of watercolor workshops at the Marion Art Center, 9:30 to 12:30 in the mornings. The class will paint outdoors as weather permits. Back by popular demand, Ms. Dunlop is currently residing in Attleboro where she is a Direcotor and President of the Attleboro Museum. She has also served in that capacity at the Rhode Island Watercolor Society. She has degrees in painting and music from the London College of Music and later did graduate work in art history at Boston University and Radcliffe College. She studied etching at DeCordova Museum and oil painting with Charles Couper and watercolor with Betty Lou Schlemm and David Millard.

Chief James Moran also informed Mrs. Steele that the road could not be blocked off, in case of an emergency and also for Brownell, who will be hauling boats out. The Board of Health must also approve the concession stands.

A letter was also received from Corporate Environmental Advisors, Inc. (CEA) pertaining to a change Order for the Release Abatement Project at the Police Station.

The letter provides the final proposed lump sum cost for Change Order number one-to install one additional air sparging well in the area of MW-3. This is the groundwater well in which high levels of gasoline dissolves were observed this winter. As discussed, this area would be beyond the area of

The lump sum to install the well, processing pipe, and process line valve is $1,020.

The Planning Board also sent a request for additional hours for non-union personnel until the end of this fiscal year. "Due to unforeseen amount of work the Planning Board has had submitted recently within the next two months, the Board requests our secretary, Janice Estes, be allowed to work up to 15 hours per week if necessary to complete the work required until the end of this fiscal year. "An additional $1,000 will also be requested of the FinCom to be placed in their salaries budget for this fiscal year to reflect this increase.

Correspondence was also received from Representative Straus advising that he would be happy to assist the town in the development and construction of a bike path. Those who are still interested should contact the Town Hall soon, as the Board will meet with interested people at next Tuesday's meeting. members of the Finance Committee also attended.

After approving the budget for the fiscal year of 1997, the voters discussed and agreed to vote on the articles that will appear as questions on the ballots. Among these is the raising of funds appropriated to Sippican School by $83,081 "to cover the cost of increased enrollment and to maintain services." This includes the addition of a fourth teacher for grade four.

Also appearing on the ballot will be requests for a salary for the Animal Control Officer, a new rubbish packer, protective clothing and a compressor for the fire department, money for curbside recycling, a police cruiser, and money to resurface roads and sidewalks.

The voters approved paying the town's share of $54,210 for the new track at Old Rochester Regional High School.

The Old Landing launching ramp will be rebuilt with the $150,000 it was appropriated by the voters and Bird Island Light will receive $10,000 for its restoration. The Buzzards Bay Action Committee

A LITTLE SHOWMANSHIP

It's a lot easier to sell a home than to sell a house! When preparing your home for prospective buyers, use some subtle showmanship to help set the right atmosphere. Give your home a restful, happy, inviting look.

For evening inspection, brighten your home from the front door light on through all the rooms in the house. Little decorator touches - a vase of flowers, a plant, small pillows - can add much to the comfortable feeling of a home.

If you are having your home shown in the winter,a crackling fire in the fireplace adds irresistable attraction. A working fireplace is a major attraction to home buyers.

A large mirror can make a room look larger. Properly placed, it can reflect and magnify many of your best selling points. Definitely turn off the TV and turn on soft background music on the hi-fi to create that subtle - lived-in atmosphere. Your prospects are buying more than a house - they are buying a new way of life. So make your home LIVE.

The size of off-street parking spaces was changed from 10'x20' to 9'x18'. Quail's Crossing and Partridge Place were accepted as town ways.

The school committee reported on an architectural study done recently by a Boston firm. In order to get state assistance and make room for growth in the school, it is possible that the part of the school with a wooden structure may need to be replaced.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:25 pm. Voting will take place on April 26 in the Sippican School Gymnasium.

It is a large house for its' residential zoning; it might be easier to find buyers if the zoning was changed so that the building could be used for apartments or businesses. The voters also seemed to agree that the character of the building should remain the same. The article was defeated.

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting

April 22, 1996

By Justin Hahn

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, April 22, at 7:08 pm by Chairman Lorraine Roy Hawkes. Selectman David L. Hughes, Selectman Richard Cutler and interim secretary Veronica Lafreniere were also present.

Selectmen began the meeting by approving the minutes of their April 16 meeting. With minor corrections, Selectmen unanimously approved them and moved on to incoming correspondence. Selectmen received a letter from Buzzards Bay Action Committee regarding Municipal Funding and House Bill 5865. Selectmen unanimously approved Selectman Hughes's motion to contact Senator and Representative in support of the bill.

Selectmen met with a representative from Simplex to discuss fire alarm systems for the town buildings at 7:10 pm. The Simplex representative presented two options for the town-to upgrade to a new digital system, or to utilize the older technology and simply add on. The representative also expressed the company's willingness to supply Selectman Hughes pointed out that the Library was not included in the proposal. He made a motion to have Simplex present a revised proposal, with specifications, next Monday.

Selectmen unanimously approved the motion.

Selectman Cutler also questioned whether or not this equipment was proprietary, which would allow the town to contract with Simplex at any further time.

The representative for Simplex said that it was not.

it would be of no use to post the information Selectmen were requesting, as she often didn't receive the information until the day before. Chairman Hawkes agreed to meet with Mrs. Parker to determine what the Mass. General Laws required, and use these as a guideline in the future.

Chairman Hawkes also noted that some information had come in regarding a Hold Harmless Agreement for Police Chief Walter Denham's proposed Police Ride along program. Selectman Hughes moved to have it sent to Chief Denham, and request the Chief's response.

Selectmen unanimously approved the motion.

Selectmen met with Chief Ashworth and Chief Denham at 7:45 pm to discuss replacement of a four-wheel-drive vehicle. Chief Ashworth stated that he had no problems with taking Chief Denham's used vehicle, if the Police Department would pay for the work and paint job necessary to make it a Fire Department vehicle.

Selectmen then inquired on the expected cost of the paint job. Chief Denham stated it might be possible to get it free, but if not then it would cost around $3,500. Selectmen then asked if Chief Ashworth wished to withdraw his Town Meeting article to purchase a new four-wheel-drive vehicle. He stated that he would withdraw only if Chief Denham's article to transfer ownership of this vehicle was approved. If not, he wanted to have his article as a back-up measure.

Under New Business, Selectmen received a letter from the Town Accountant, regarding bills from Selectmen not having account codes. Selectman Hughes moved to have Chairman Hawkes meet with the Town Accountant and review the matter. Selectmen approved the motion unanimously. Selectmen also received a letter from Vectel Systems stating that they would no longer be running the SEMASS facility. Selectman Hughes moved to send a letter of appreciation for their fine work. Selectman unanimously approved the motion.

Selectmen met briefly with the Building Needs Committee at 8:00 pm regarding a proposal and an article for the Town Meeting. Selectmen unanimously approved a motion to hold off until next with the matter.

Selectmen then met with the Finance Committee, and then adjourned for the evening.

Ticks

Last year, my dog would get 10-20 ticks a day. How can I stop that from happening this year?
Your veterinarian may stock "Preventic" tick collars. These collars will minimize the number of ticks that get embedded in your dog.

How can I remove the ticks that he gets?
Grasp the tick near the head with tweezers and gently pull.

Are Deer Ticks (the little ones) the only ticks that carry Lyme Disease?
Unfortunately, no. The regular brown dog tick can also transmit Lyme disease, so use tweezers to remove them.

Letters to the Editor

To The Editor:

Here we go again. At the April 9 Mattapoisett Selectmen's meeting in response to a letter sent from Lynn Sylvia, Mr. Lambalot explained that the Board had asked for a new designation for North Street. The designation would change the road from a "scenic roadway" to a "rural highway." When asked what this meant, Mr. Lambalot said, "It doesn't mean anything." When asked if it doesn't mean anything then why request the designation, Mr. Lambalot responded, "It doesn't matter."

How can elected an official of the town be so evasive in answering a direct question? Of course this designation has to mean something. Otherwise why waste the time? What is the future of North Street?

During meetings held with the voters and the Board, with state officials and Tibbetts Engineering in attendance, the group acquiesced to the total width of street, from 35 ' to 31'. Never at any point during those meetings did the voters agree to a change in the type of roadway they wanted. We agreed to the total width because we weren't given any other options. We have been waiting for the Board to invite us to meet with them again after Tibbetts Engineering had finished drawings for us to review. That has yet to happen.

Please readers understand that Route 105 is a rural highway. Route 105 in Lakeville was widened considerably during 1994 and 1995 in Lakeville. But Marion wouldn't allow it. Are we going to be faced with a continuous battle on our hands to keep the Board in check on this issue? What is going on?

Why make a rural highway out of North Street? What's on North Street that requires the road be prepared to receive heavy loads? Is something going on at the dump that voters have not been apprised of? Is the Board of Health receiving private bids for the dump operation? Watch out! Find out! Do we want a Mt. Bio Safe is Mattapoisett?

Go to the next meeting dear voters and ask questions.

To The Voters Of The Town Of Marion:

The Marion Board of Assessors wishes to respond to a recent letter sent to the voters of the Town of Marion from Wayne Asker, a candidate for Assessor in the upcoming election.

While we agree with Mr. Asker that our Assistant Assessor, Catherine Gibbs, is a valuable asset in the Assessors' Office, we do not agree that the office could not function in her absence.

One member of the Board has served the Town as Assessor for 29 years, one has served for 18 years, and one 10 years. To suggest that with this extended experience that the Board of Assessors is not capable of running the Assessors' Office is inaccurate and inappropriate.

The 10th Annual Canal Walk for Hunger will take place on Saturday, May 4. The 10K (6.2 Miles) walk will proceed along the paved bicycle path of the Cape Cod Canal and is suitable for reasonably fit walkers of all ages. There are check points along the way where water and orange slices will be provided. The walk will turn at the herring run. The French Are Coming 24 high school students from the Paris area will summer in the Fairhaven/Mattapoisett/Marion area from June 28 until July 26 to participate in the second year of the Center for Educational Travel (CET) program headed by Carol Kaner, an instructor in the Foreign Language department at Fairhaven High School.

Host families are needed for the visitors, and the opportunity is an interesting one with many benefits for the hosting family. Host families need only to provide sleeping quarters, an occasional bag lunch, and minimal transportation to a convenient drop-off place. High school students who host and would like to help Mrs. Kaner in the classroom with conversation classes will receive a certificate of participation as a teacher's assistant, a great thing to add to a college resume. Students who are studying French can improve their conversational skills by participating in a class taught by the French teacher escorting the students. This is a wonderful opportunity for you and your family to make lifelong friends and share in all of the cultural and social activities that make this a fun, busy and quality experience.

An informational meeting will be held at Millicent Library on April 29 at 7:00 pm downstairs, or you can contact Mrs. Kaner at 979-4052.

Bishop Stang Spring Musical

Boasting one of the greatest scores ever written for the stage, "Babes In Arms" will come to life in Bishop Stang's John C. O'Brien Gymnasium on April 26 and 27.

Set at a summer stock theatre on Cape Cod in the late 30s, the Richard Rodgers and Lorenz Hart musical features--"The Lady is a Tramp," "My Funny Valentine," "Where or When," and "I Wish I Were In Love Again." The plot turns and twists when the summer apprentices decide the show must go on despite the underhanded attempts of a surly theatre owner to squash the production. Principal players are freshman Lara-Beth Lavigne of Westport, junior Chris O'Donnell of Pocassett, sophomore Meagan Carroll of Fairhaven, senior Kelly Wilbur of Assonet, senior Shawn Hinds of East Freetown, and senior Shirley Guerreiro of New Bedford. Faculty members key to the production are Ms. Suzanne Christie as Director, Mrs. Rose Grant in charge of Costumes, and Mr. Gary Rego responsible for stage design and lighting.

Tickets for the evening, which promises to entertain with song and dance, are on sale for $6 and are available from the Bishop Stang Business Office, any cast member and at the door the night of the performance.

New Bedford Whaling Museum

Cultural Weathering

Kingston Heath, associate professor at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte's College of Architecture, speaks at the New Bedford Whaling Museum on May 9, at 8:00 pm in the theater. The program begins at 8:00 pm in the Museum theater, 18 Johnny Cake Hill, New Bedford. Mr. Heath, an architectural historian who spent his childhood in his grandparents' Nelson Street triple-decker, will present an illustrated lecture sponsored by the New Bedford Preservation Society and the Whaling Museum. Heath, the grandson of Amanda (Souza) Paes and Harold Pitts, Sr., will describe how triple-deckers evolved as the predominant dwelling type for a largely immigrant industrial work force between the 1850s and 1920. First built in Newark, New Jersey, in 1855, triple-deckers appeared in Massachusetts and textile cities in the same decade. In New Bedford, with the decline of whaling and the rise of cotton textile manufacture, the first "three tenements" were built by Potomska Mill in 1871.

From 1900, when the textile industry had recovered from the nationwide depression of the 1890s, to 1929, when it had virtually ceased to exist in New Bedford, triple-deckers housed the bulk of the industrial work force. By 1930, more than 64 percent of the city's population lived in two and three decker flats.

Maritime Heritage Day

The New Bedford Whaling Museum presents the first Annual Maritime Heritage Day to be held on Saturday, April 27, 1996 from 10:00 am until 3:00 pm. Join us on board the Schooner Ernestina docked at State Pier; on the Bark Lagoda in the Museum and in the Museum theater to celebrate the maritime history of the port in song, storytelling, and hands-on activities. This will be a full day of fun, song, and entertainment.

World renowned storyteller Len Cabral will spin out tales in the tradition of the Cape Verde Islands and West Africa. Join Josiah Gardiner, a 19th century seaman as portrayed by historic role player Glenn Gordiner, as he offeres a glimpse into the fascinating world of tall ships of a century ago.

Lloyd Center In Dartmouth

The Lloyd Center invites community members to join the 10th Annual Bird-A-Thon fundraiser, May 18-19, 1996. The event challenges folks to identify as many bird species in one day, from midnight to midnight if possible. Held during the spring migration, participants may be able to see up to 200 different species of birds in a single day. Birders are encouraged to visit favorite birding spots throughout the day and do not have to come to the Lloyd Center to participate. Before the event, the birders are asked to recruit family and friends to sponsor their birding for the day, at a minimum of 10 cents per identified species. If birding alone, a participant should keep his or her own checklist of identified birds. If working as a team, folks should keep one checklist to record seen or heard birds. All of the proceeds go to research of the very birds you're watching. All birders will receive a 1996 Bird-

Student Exchange Program

The American International Youth Student Exchange Program is a non-profit high school foreign exchange program in the United States, Europe, and other parts of the world. AIYSEP believes a greater international understanding is accomplished among people and countries through cultural and home stay programs. It offers qualified students a chance to spend a summer, semester, or school year with a host family in America or abroad. American host families are being sought for 25 students from high schools in Europe and other foreign countries for the coming year. Students will arrive in the United States in late August, attend the local school and return home in late June next year. The students, all fluent in English, have been screened by their school counselors and their home country and will receive medical insurance and spending money.

American families with small children are welcome to participate in the program. All families hosting a student for the year can deduct $50 a month for income tax purposes. AIYSEP is also seeking American high school students, ages 15-19, who would like to spend a high school semester or year with a European family or to participate in a four or six week family stay abroad in the summer. Students are screened by AIYSEP school counselors and educators in the local schools. Candidates who have evidence of maturity, superior character and knowledge of English and a foreign language can be finalists and become AIYSEP students. Movie Review

The funny family farce of Flirting

By Rob Gonsalves

• Flirting With Disaster. Starring Ben Stiller and Patricia Arquette. Written and directed by David O. Russell. Running time: 87 minutes. MPAA rating: R. At Cinema 140 in New Bedford (999-6577).

This is certainly a bizarre season for movie comedies. The first big laugh-fest of the year, The Birdcage, hid its family-values warmth in subversive clothing. Flirting With Disaster, which is shaping up to be the next big comedy, does the exact opposite. It starts off with a Republican-friendly unit — successful husband, pretty wife, and adorable newborn son — and proceeds to trash every possible familial concept there is.

Clearly, this theme is close to David O. Russell's jaded heart. His previous film, Spanking the Monkey, was a jet-black comedy about an ailing mom who seduces her hapless college-age son. Yet Russell doesn't hate his characters. He sees them all as deeply confused human beings whose struggles to preserve family unity are in direct proportion to their inability to do so. His scripts are also rude and profane, which is a plus.

Flirting With Disaster follows yuppie Mel (Ben Stiller), his wife Nancy (Patricia Arquette), and their unnamed baby on a quest across America. Mel, whose new fatherhood has rattled him, thinks that finding his biological parents will give him a better idea of "who he is." His overbearing adoptive parents (Mary Tyler Moore and George Segal, both hilarious) think it's a stupid idea, and the movie keeps proving them right.

Mel and Nancy are guided, more or less, by a woman from the adoption agency — Tina (Tea Leoni, from TV's "The Naked Truth"), one of those people whose confident facade hides the fact that they have no idea what they're doing. Tina leads the couple to one false parent after another, and this section of the movie gets a little elitist; we're meant to be mortified by the idea that a Reagan-worshipping woman or a scruffy truck driver could be Mel's real parents.

Then Mel and company arrive in Arizona, where they finally meet the real McCoys — Alan Alda and Lily Tomlin, who quickly take over the movie. Playing these ex-hippies (who still drop acid and have their own pharmacological lab in the cellar), the comedy veterans work together so smoothly that Flirting With Disaster would be worth seeing just for their scenes, even if the rest of the movie were junk.

Fortunately, it isn't. David O. Russell has a sharp ear for satirical dialogue, and he loves to put his characters in the kinds of horrific, embarrassing situations that make you hide your face even as you're laughing. Like The Birdcage, Flirting With Disaster is a farce — a machine that rolls slowly but surely into chaos. It also rolls right over such things as logic and credibility, but that's the nature of farce.

Usually, some lesson emerges from the wreckage. Here, as in Spanking the Monkey, it's that the imperfect family unit itself isn't nearly as destructive as the expectations we attach to it. The pain and comedy of families lie in the distance between the ideal and the reality. In his cheerfully twisted way, David O. Russell is making the healthiest, sanest comedies around — entertainment for the whole dysfunctional family.

by Linda Black

Aries (March 21-April 19). Stay home as much as possible to avoid hassles. Call in sick, too; you need the rest. Get a friend to cover for you.

Taurus (April 20-May 20). Do more research on whatever it is you're thinking about buying, and go get it. Entertain at home.

Gemini (May 21-June 21). You're sharpest now, so get up early. You'll feel the pinch; your money doesn't quite stretch far enough. Hide out to save.

Cancer (June 22-July 22). Stop by the necessary bureaucracies and finish incomplete paperwork. Play with your friends as much as possible, but don't make commitments.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22). Meet with friends and romance could follow. Finish overdue tasks. These are not easy days. A supervisor makes tough demands.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). You may develop a crush on a cheerful supervisor. Don't take it too far, but enjoy yourself. Travel with friends.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). You're brilliant. If you want to argue with the boss' do it. These are good days for team efforts.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Buy something nice for your sweetheart. Plan a trip and study foreign languages. Make tough decisions.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). An argument could lead to romance. Opposites do attract, you know. Don't spend now; wait and get a better deal.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). You're lucky in love, but you have to take care of business, too. Discuss a partnership but don't solidify the deal yet.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Schedule a breakfast date. Work hard. Finish the old and start the new. Competition's fierce. You'll need a good partner to win.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20). These days are good for romance. You'll have to work hard at work, though, 'cause lots of things are coming soon.

If You're Having a Birthday This Week: Finish up previous requirements — don't change horses in the middle of the stream. Stick close to home this year. Fix it up or buy new.

French Exchange Informational Meeting

Twenty-four high school students from the Paris area will summer in the Fairhaven/ Mattapoisett/Marion area from June 28 through July 26 to participate in the Center for Education Travel (CET) program headed by Carol Kaner, an instructor in the Foreign Language department at Fairhaven High School.

Host families are needed for the visitors, and the opportunity is an interesting one. Host families need only to provide sleeping quarters, an occasional bag lunch, minimal transportation to a convenient drop-off place. High school students who would like to help Ms. Kaner in the classroom with conversation classes will receive a certificate of participation as a teacher's assistant, a great thing to add to a college resume. Students who are studying French can improve their conversational skills by participating in a class taught by the French teacher escorting the students.

This is a wonderful opportunity for you and your family to make lifelong friends and share in all of the cultural and social activities that make this a fun, busy, and quality experience.

An informational meeting will be held at the Millicent Library on Monday, April 29 at 7:00 pm downstairs. Please contact CET Coordinator Carol Kaner at 979-4052 for further information.

Easter Seal Fundraiser in Acushnet

Youngsters at the Long Plain Christian Nursery in Acushnet will learn about physical disabilities on Friday, April 26 beginning at 10:00 am through a special Easter Seal program sponsored by T.J. Maxx, WB56, WWLP-TV22, and Business Equipment Depot.

The Easter Seal HOP-N-ING teaches children about the causes of disabilities and their effects on people's everyday lives. The children also find out how wheelchairs, crutches and other specialized . equipment works.

The next part of HOP-N-ING gives the kids a chance to help. They hop as many times as they can in three minutes, earning money pledged for each hop by family and friends. Funds raised help provide Easter Seals services that expand independence for men, women and children with disabilities. Services include summer camp,

School Assistance Program Extended

State Rep. William Straus (D-Mattapoisett) successfully amended the FY 1997 House budget to extend the School Building Assistance Program (SBAB) for an additional two years through June, 1998. The action came during House deliberation of the State budget to begin on July 1, 1996.

The Town of Fairhaven is currently on the approved list of eligible projects for state funding assistance toward the renovation and additions to the Fairhaven High School. Extension of the state program through FY 1998 should ensure current state assistance levels at the time the Fairhaven project is reached. Without legislative authorization to extend the program, it was scheduled to expire on June 30 of this year.

"I am pleased that my amendment was adopted in the House today," said Rep. Straus. "When the voters of Fairhaven approved the override for the High School project, they did so with the exception that the State would honor the existing contribution rates; this reauthorization will assure the Town's residents of the program's continuation when Fairhaven is reached for funding."

Upon completion of House action, the budget will then be taken up by the State Senate.
